Re:    United States v. Christopher Cervino and Abida Khan
S5 15 Cr. 171

Dear Judge Carter:

The Government writes to respectfully request an approximately one-month adjournment of the sentencing of Christopher Cervino and Abida Khan, both of whom are scheduled to be sentenced on November 17, 2017. Ms. Griswold is scheduled to begin a six week trial before Judge Gardephe on October 23, 2017 in United States v. Kaleil Isaza Tuzman, S8 15 Cr. 536 and accordingly will not be available for sentencing on November 17, 2017. Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that the sentencing of defendants Khan and Cervino be adjourned for a period of approximately one month. Defense counsel for both Khan and Cervino have no objection to this request. The Government further requests that the sentencing of defendants Khan and Cervino be set for the same day (or consecutive days) in order to allow victims who wish to attend the sentencing – many of whom live out of state – to attend.

Respectfully submitted,

JOON H. KIM
Acting United States Attorney
